EMILY MACKENZIE

Listen to award winning author and illustrator Emily MacKenzie read from her fantastic new picture book, Stanley the amazing Knitting Cat and be inspired to make some illustrations of your own.

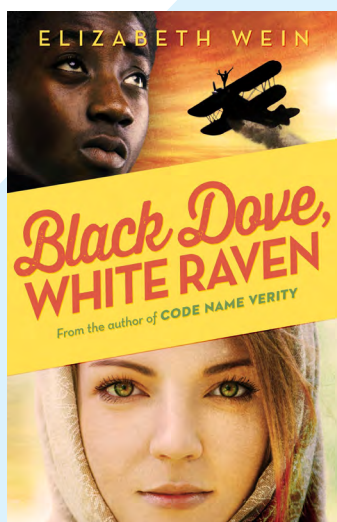

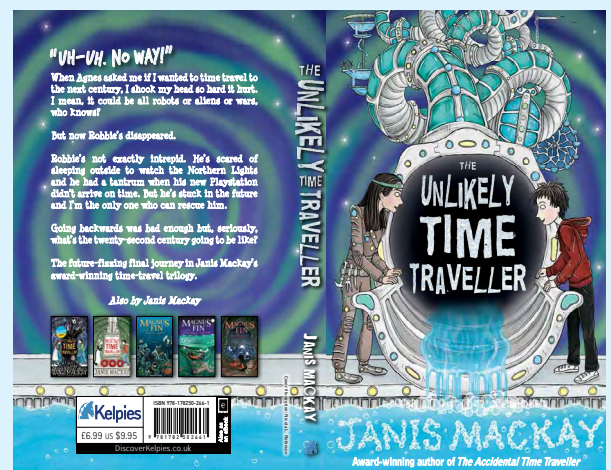

MARIE MACAULAY

Appropriately for Halloween, Marie Macaulay will introduce children to her latest book: Teàrlag agus a' Bhana bhuidseach, in which Teàrlag's Mum saves the Halloween party from a terrifying witch.

JANIS MACKAY

Janis Mackay will talk about the third book in her time travel trilogy which is set 100 years in the future. Janis will speak about her inspirations, read from one of her books and encourage pupils to begin writing their own time travel story.

ELIZABETH WEIN

Focussing on her newest novel, Black Dove, White Raven, set in Ethiopia in 1935 and about adopted siblings, one black one white; Elizabeth Wein will talk about her obsessions and how they shape her gripping stories.

MARTIN MACINTYRE

By using his novel "A' Challaig Seo Challò", which won Duais Dhòmhnaill Meek 2013, as the starting point, author Martin MacIntyre will lead the group in a lively, interactive, session on his own writing and on writing fiction in general.
